UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

Founded in 1871, the University of Arkansas is a place where dedicated and creative people are working to build a better world. To us, this is just what it means to be a Razorback.

NATIONALLY COMPETITIVE
The Carnegie Foundation classifies the University of Arkansas among the top 3 percent of universities in America that have the highest level of research activity. Each year, U of A students win national scholarships that support their academic and career goals.

Samia Ismail, an honors biomedical engineering student, was named a 2019 Harry S. Truman Scholar, one of 62 in the nation. Committed to a lifetime of public service, she plans to improve healthcare access for Arkansans.

U of A honors biochemistry student Anthony Azzun received a 2019-2020 Fulbright English Teaching Assistantship in Andorra. He currently performs biomedical research at the Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai through the NIH’s Postbaccalaureate Research Education Program.

Learn more about the U of A’s history of nationally competitive awards at awards.uark.edu.

STUDENT CENTERED
Opportunities that enhance learning are an important part of the college experience. For many students, that’s Study Abroad, and the U of A offers support and advice every step of the way. Sabrina Rivas received a Benjamin A. Gilman Scholarship to study graphic design and art history in Rome, Italy. An art education major, she will draw upon her experience abroad in her future classroom as an art teacher.

Learn about studying abroad at studyabroad.uark.edu.

RESEARCH UNIVERSITY
For honors mathematics and physics major Tyler Bishop, the University of Arkansas has opened the doors to the world of scientific research. Working under associate professor Salvador Barraza-Lopez, he has performed research that could have applications in the engineering and manufacturing of nanoscale devices. In 2019 he was named a Barry Goldwater Scholar, the nation’s highest honor for undergraduate students in the fields of science, technology, engineering, and mathematics.

Learn more about undergraduate research opportunities at honorscollege.uark.edu.
STUDENT LIFE

Living on campus provides an opportunity for students to extend their learning experiences beyond the classroom, library, and laboratory.

UNIVERSITY HOUSING
University Housing strives to create a community. More than just a place to sleep, residence halls at the U of A provide space to live, learn, and develop lifelong friendships. It’s a great first year experience even for those who have a year of college already under their belt and our designated transfer communities make it easy to get connected with older students.

For more information about living on campus, visit housing.uark.edu.

CAMPUS DINING
The U of A offers a variety of meal plans from Campus Dining with a mix of dietary options prepared by skilled chefs and dedicated staff. Choose to eat at "all-you-care-to-eat" dining halls or at the food court in the Arkansas Union. Grab a quick snack at one of several campus convenience stores or coffee shops, or visit one of the many restaurants on campus.

For more information about dining on campus, visit housing.uark.edu/dining.

STUDENT SUCCESS CENTER
The Student Success Center works with students to refine and strengthen academic skills like note taking, reading, study habits, and time management, while the Career Development Center helps U of A students discover their interests, values, and skills, and prepares them to start a career after graduation.

For more information visit success.uark.edu.

UNIVERSITY RECREATION
The four-story Health, Physical Education, and Recreation building (HPER), a part of University Recreation (UREC), offers students access to an Olympic-sized swimming pool, an indoor track, workout and weight room, climbing walls, four gymnasiums, a bike shop, and much more. UREC also facilitates club sport teams which compete against other collegiate club teams.

For more information about club sports and recreation on campus, visit urec.uark.edu.
GET INVOLVED

With over 400 student organizations, the University of Arkansas offers plenty of opportunities to connect outside the classroom. Enjoy sporting events, art galleries, theatre performances, concerts, films, and more. Join one of the many sports clubs on campus to stay active, or sharpen your skills in the student-run radio station (KXUA), television station (UATV), or newspaper (The Arkansas Traveler).

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

Five steps to funding your education:

1. APPLY EARLY
   Apply for university scholarships by posted deadlines and apply between January 1 and February 15 for fall semester departmental scholarships (each year).

2. SCHOLARSHIPS
   In addition to institutional and departmental scholarships, search for private aid through local businesses, civic groups, and places of worship. Check websites such as fastweb.com for lists of additional scholarships.

3. COMPLETE YOUR FAFSA
   Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to be considered for federal student aid. New students should submit the FAFSA no later than the scholarship deadlines for Advance Arkansas and other need-based scholarship consideration. Go to fafsa.gov and use the University of Arkansas code: 001108.

4. REVIEW STUDENT AID REPORT
   Review the Student Aid Report (SAR) that will be sent to you after your FAFSA is processed. It will include a federally calculated Expected Family Contribution (EFC) and outline any additional steps you should complete.

5. RECEIVE YOUR AWARD NOTICE
   Receive your award notice from the University of Arkansas, which may include grants, loans, and work-study, as well as merit-based awards and scholarships. This notice may not include all awards.

STUDY ABROAD

Learning extends beyond the classroom at the University of Arkansas. Our students interview Tibetan refugees in India, study art and economics at our Rome center, engage in community development in Belize, Mozambique, and Vietnam, and make lasting connections at partner universities all over the world.

studyabroad.uark.edu
The Honors College brings together top students and professors to share transformative learning experiences.

Being part of the Honors College will allow you to:
- Participate in honors courses on interdisciplinary, cutting-edge topics
- Conduct hands-on research with a faculty member
- Engage with local and global communities through service learning
- Apply for competitive grants to support research, service learning, internships, and study abroad
- Serve as a leader on campus and beyond
- Make lifelong friends in the honors community

Each year, the Honors College awards more than $1 million in student grants to help students study abroad and do research.

TRANSFER HONORS COLLEGE REQUIREMENTS
Transfer students must be successfully admitted to the University of Arkansas before beginning the Honors College application process.

If you don't meet the requirements for honors when you enter the University of Arkansas, you may be eligible to join as a current student once you establish a strong academic record at the university. You should consult the honors program director in your academic college for specific information on honors eligibility requirements.
