University Housing

University Housing strives to create a community for all students. More than just a place to sleep, residence halls at the University of Arkansas provide space to live, learn and develop lifelong friendships. With designated upperclassmen halls, transfer students will find opportunities to connect with similar students.

Visit housing.uark.edu for more information about living on campus and offcampus.uark.edu about living off campus.

Campus Dining

The U of A offers a variety of meal plans for on and off campus students from Campus Dining with a mix of dietary options prepared by skilled chefs and dedicated staff. Stop by the "all-you-care-to-eat" dining halls or the food court in the Arkansas Union. Visit one of the many restaurants on campus, or grab a quick snack at one of the several campus convenience stores or coffee shops.

For more information about dining on campus, visit housing.uark.edu/dining.
Student Success

Student Success at the U of A provides outreach, programs and resources to help students with academic success, such as tutoring, writing studio, supplemental instruction and peer academic coaching. The Career Development Center helps U of A students discover their interests, values and skills, and prepares them to start a career after graduation.

For more information visit success.uark.edu.

University Recreation

The four-story Health, Physical Education and Recreation building (HPER), a part of University Recreation (UREC), offers students access to an Olympic-sized swimming pool, an indoor track, workout and weight room, climbing walls, gymnasiums, outdoor rental equipment and much more. UREC also facilitates club sport teams that compete against other collegiate club teams. Students can also sign up for university-led outdoor trips ranging from day hikes to week-long backpacking trips to the Grand Canyon.

For more information about club sports and recreation on campus, visit urec.uark.edu.
Online Programs

Interested in pursuing your degree 100% online?

University of Arkansas ONLINE programs are designed by academic departments on the Fayetteville campus to offer you another path to earning a degree from a top-tier public research university. Online programs give you the flexibility to balance family, work and school responsibilities. You do not have to put your life on hold while working toward a better one.

The application process and deadlines are the same as our traditional programs, but not every academic program is available as an online option.

Students who study online at the University of Arkansas become part of an enduring community of passionate learners and teachers. Here, quality is important.

To explore these programs and learn more about tuition, fees, and support available to online students, visit online.uark.edu.

For more information, visit studyabroad.uark.edu.

Who is eligible to study abroad?

University of Arkansas students who are in good academic standing and who have completed at least 24 credit hours with the U of A are eligible to look into study abroad. Every study abroad program could have its own requirements beyond these basics, so check with the program application for more on the specific expectations for your program.

How do I fund my study abroad?

There are many ways to fund your study abroad, including scholarships and aid that you already have, as well as study abroad grants through individual colleges, academic departments and resources outside the university.
International Connections Lounge

Each year, University of Arkansas students study abroad in countries all around the world! With over 1,400 programs to choose from, students have the opportunity to extend their learning beyond the classroom. Programs include faculty-led trips, exchange programs, international internships, research projects and much more.
Fayetteville is consistently ranked among the country's finest college towns, and the surrounding Northwest Arkansas region is considered one of the best places to live in the U.S. You'll find a number of attractions that will contribute to an enriching college experience or simply enhance a weekend visit.

Fayetteville's downtown district offers a variety of restaurants, boutiques and entertainment venues unique to the area. Stop by the seasonal Fayetteville Farmers Market, catch a show at the Walton Arts Center or TheatreSquared or check out Fayetteville's annual Roots Festival!

Nature enthusiasts can enjoy some of the nation's best outdoor amenities with spectacular hiking trails just minutes away from campus. Devil's Den State Park and Beaver Lake are only 30 minutes away, or stay local and enjoy the Razorback Greenway. Fayetteville’s Botanical Garden of the Ozarks is another close-to-campus option.

For more information, visit experiencefayetteville.com.
Northwest Arkansas

Fayetteville is nestled in the Northwest Arkansas metroplex. The area is home to some of the biggest names in business, healthcare and non-profit industries, which provide unparalleled career and internship opportunities for U of A students. The Northwest Arkansas region consistently ranks among the best places to live, according to U.S. News & World Report.

Pinnacle Hills Promenade in Rogers offers the region’s newest, open-air shopping experience with many of the nation’s most popular shops and eateries. The Razorback Greenway is a 37.5-mile-long paved bicycle trail through rolling forest and pasture that connects Fayetteville to Bentonville while passing numerous museums, parks and retail facilities. Be sure to explore Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art, a world-class museum featuring collections that include several works considered masterpieces. Crystal Bridges regularly hosts traveling exhibitions, offers miles of wilderness trails and a unique dining experience. And if that’s not enough, admission is free.

For more information, visit findingnwa.com.
Home of the Razorbacks

The University of Arkansas is home to one of the most successful intercollegiate athletics programs in the nation. With 19 varsity sports programs, the Razorbacks consistently rank among the best in the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and nationally.

In 2021-22, Arkansas won eight SEC championships and recorded nine top-10 NCAA finishes to earn a program-best seventh place finish in the Learfield Directors’ Cup, a competition that tracks the most successful athletics programs in the country.

The Arkansas Razorbacks don’t just represent the University of Arkansas – they are the pride of the entire state. There is nothing like the experience of ‘Calling the Hogs’ with thousands of your closest friends. The Hog Call is one of the most unique and recognizable chants in all of sports. And it’s loud – really loud.

The U of A also hosts a large variety of club and intramural sports, which are some of the most popular student activities. Over 3,000 students each year participate in various organized sports both on campus and against intercollegiate teams.

Financial Assistance

1. Apply early for university scholarships by posted deadlines.

2. In addition to institutional and departmental scholarships, search for private aid through local businesses, civic groups, and places of worship. Check websites such as fastweb.com for lists of additional scholarships.

3. Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to be considered for federal student aid. New students should submit the FAFSA no later than the scholarship deadlines posted to be considered for need-based scholarship awards, such as the Advance Arkansas scholarship. Go to fafsa.gov and use the University of Arkansas code: 001108. Spring 2023 applicants should complete the 2022-2023 FAFSA, while summer/fall 2023 applicants should complete the 2023-2024 FAFSA.

4. Review the Student Aid Report (SAR) that will be sent to you after your FAFSA is processed. It will include a federally calculated Expected Family Contribution (EFC) and outline any additional required steps you should complete.

5. Receive your award notice from the University of Arkansas, which may include grants, loans and work-study, as well as merit-based awards and scholarships. This notice may not include all awards.

For more information about financial aid, visit finaid.uark.edu.
Transfer Scholarships

In 2020–2021, transfer students benefited from nearly $900,000 in university scholarships.

To apply for academic scholarships at the University of Arkansas, you must first apply for admission. Students should submit their admissions application and all required documents, including official transcripts, by October 1 to be considered for the October 15 spring semester deadline and by March 15 to be considered for the April 1 fall semester deadline. scholarships.uark.edu/transfer-scholarships

Incoming students can also apply for departmental scholarships between January 1–February 15 each year. scholarships.uark.edu/current-students/college-scholarships.php

Eligibility

The U of A offers transfer scholarships to entering students each fall and spring. To be considered for University of Arkansas Transfer Scholarships, entering transfer students must have completed or be in the process of completing at least 24 or more transferable hours of college-level work from a regionally accredited institution of higher education other than the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville. Applicants must have completed a minimum of 12 transferable hours at the time of application.
Housing

Living in campus housing is an exciting part of the college experience. In fact, it helps build the perfect foundation for academic and personal success.
